

Ronelle Juleff

Selsey Befriending Services

Ronelle moved to Selsey 7 years ago from South Africa where she was a police reservist working in the Charge Office and, for excitement, was regularly involved in road blocks. Ronelle was also a victim support counsellor for 15 years before coming to Selsey. In that role, she was involved in training as well as in supporting victims of every sort of crime. Ronelle's experience also includes book-keeping and, after graduating from university, the J Walter Thompson media department and a publishing company.
